Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION – DIABETES SERVICES

I write in response to your request for information in relation to GPs and diabetes services.

Question:

- The number of GPs in NHS Lothian who do not offer diabetes services as part of their services.
- The number of GPs who have opted out of diabetes services in the last 6 months.

Answer:

The management of registered patients in a GP practice suffering from chronic disease such as diabetes is a core role for general practice and is explicitly included in 'essential services' under the terms of the GMS contract.¹

There is no way of opting out of delivering essential primary care services and GP referrals to secondary care should follow local referral guidelines.

This information is exempt under Section 25 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 - Information otherwise accessible

(1) Information which the applicant can reasonably obtain other than by requesting it under section 1(1) is exempt information.

I hope the information provided helps with your request.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request, you do have the right to request us to review it. Your request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter, and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt. If our decision is unchanged following a review and you remain dissatisfied with this, you then have the right to make a formal complaint to the Scottish Information Commissioner within 6 months of receipt of our review response. You can do this by using the
