Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION – A&E AND MRI

I write in response to your request for information in relation to A&E and MRI scans.

Question:

- What are A&E guideline procedures for referring patients presenting with hip pain to MRI scans?

Answer:

There are no guidelines within A&E for referring patients with hip pain for an MRI, as all cases would be referred direct to the most appropriate service to be dealt with.

Question:

- Total number of compensation claims received for missed or delayed hip and or/ femoral neck stress fractures 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025

Answer:

During the period requested there have been zero compensation claims received.

I hope the information provided helps with your request.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request, you do have the right to request us to review it. Your request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter, and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt. If our decision is unchanged following a review and you remain dissatisfied with this, you then have the right to make a formal complaint to the Scottish Information Commissioner within 6 months of receipt of our review response. You can do this by using the Scottish Information Commissioner's Office online appeals service at www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal. If you remain dissatisfied with the Commissioner's response you then have the option to appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law.
