Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION – A&E PATIENTS

I write in response to your request for information in relation to A&E patients.

Question:

- How many patients admitted to an A&E or Emergency Department have been boarded out to another ward (please note: I do not mean when a patient has been formally transferred to another ward/department). Broken down by the calendar years 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025 (most recent data):

Answer:

Patients attending Emergency Departments who subsequently require an inpatient bed are referred to as a 'boarder' in the department. Once they are moved they would be 'formally' admitted on Trak. Therefore the answer to your request would be zero.

I hope this information helps with your request.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request, you do have the right to request us to review it. Your request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter, and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt. If our decision is unchanged following a review and you remain dissatisfied with this, you then have the right to make a formal complaint to the Scottish Information Commissioner within 6 months of receipt of our review response. You can do this by using the Scottish Information Commissioner's Office online appeals service at www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal. If you remain dissatisfied with the Commissioner's response you then have the option to appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law.

If you require a review of our decision to be carried out, please write to the FOI Reviewer at the email address at the head of this letter. The review will be undertaken by a Reviewer who was not involved in the original decision-making process.
