Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION – GUIDANCE

I write in response to your request for information in relation to guidance provided to GPs.

Question:

- I'd like to receive the guidance provided to GPs on gender dysphoric patients that are self-medicating. Specifically on what should be communicated to these patients by their GPs if they request advice on harm reduction basis.

Answer:

I am advised that we do not have any guidance in relation to this. As per Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 formally I must advise that we do not hold this information.

We ask individual GPs to contact us and we will give specific advice for the patient they are wanting harm reduction advice for.

I am sorry I cannot help with your request.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request, you do have the right to request us to review it. Your request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter, and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt. If our decision is unchanged following a review and you remain dissatisfied with this, you then have the right to make a formal complaint to the Scottish Information Commissioner within 6 months of receipt of our review response. You can do this by using the Scottish Information Commissioner's Office online appeals service at www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal. If you remain dissatisfied with the Commissioner's response you then have the option to appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law.

If you require a review of our decision to be carried out, please write to the FOI Reviewer at the email address at the head of this letter. The review will be undertaken by a Reviewer who was not involved in the original decision-making process.
