Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION – CAMHS WAITS

I write in response to your request for information in relation to CAMHS waits.

Question:

1. What is the current longest adjusted period a patient has waited for their first CAMHS appointment?
2. Of patients who have had their first appointment, what is the current longest adjusted period a patient had waited for their next appointment?

Answer:

Must advise that it is not possible to provide details on individual longest waits as this is highly identifiable. This information is considered exempt under Section 38(1)(b) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 – personal information

I am sorry I cannot help with your request.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request, you do have the right to request us to review it. Your request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter, and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt. If our decision is unchanged following a review and you remain dissatisfied with this, you then have the right to make a formal complaint to the Scottish Information Commissioner within 6 months of receipt of our review response. You can do this by using the Scottish Information Commissioner's Office online appeals service at www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal. If you remain dissatisfied with the Commissioner's response you then have the option to appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law.

If you require a review of our decision to be carried out, please write to the FOI Reviewer at the email address at the head of this letter. The review will be undertaken by a Reviewer who was not involved in the original decision-making process.
